NOTICE TO NHI CARD APPLICANTS

HOW TO SUBMIT THIS APPLICATION

《Notice 1》 If you lose, damage your NHI card or want to change your personal information or photo, please complete all parts of this form and submit it in person, present your original identification and handling fee of TWD 200 to the post office. You will receive your new NHI card within seven working days.

《Notice 2》 If this is your first time applying for the NHI card, (e.g. newborns or newly-hired foreign employees who have completed the enrollment) or the card is unreadable due to other reasons without scratched or damaged; please complete part 1 and submit this application form along with the old card and send it as a registered mail to any National Health Insurance Administration's regional division from the address of the listing below. (In this case, this application will not be accepted by the post office.)

PLEASE NOTE:

- If you appoint a representative to apply for NHI card on-site, that person should present his/her ID and your ID to NHIA staff for verification.
- Opening hours and locations of post offices nationwide are available on the Chunghwa Post Co., Ltd. website: <http://www.post.gov.tw>
- While your new card is being processed, you can present this slip (Part 3) within 14 days of its issuance to any health care institution to receive medical care.
- Your new NHI card will be sent as a registered mail. If your new NHI card is returned due to the fact that no receiver was found at the address you leave, and you don't get it back more than 1 year, NHIA will destroy the card in view of information security.
